

A Double-Rhyme Story

Does Anyone Have a Spare Bear?

by Dick Punnett
illustrated by Helen Endres

DOUBLE~RHYME

Does Anyone Have a Spare Bear?

by Dick Punnett
illustrated by Helen Endres

Library of Congress Cataloging in Publication Data

Punnett, Richard Douglas.

Does anyone have a spare bear?

(Double-rhyme books)

Summary: A lonely bear in a village fair finds happiness at last with a spare bear from Delaware.

1. Children's stories, American. [1. Bears—Fiction.
2. Stories in rhyme] I. Endres, Helen. II. Title.

III. Series.

PZ8.3.P97DO 1985

[E]

84-23009

ISBN 0-89565-304-4

DOUBLE~RHYME

Does Anyone Have a Spare Bear?

*To Don and Helen,
who have had every pet EXCEPT a bear!*

VILLAGE FAIR

Our village has a fair where...

we keep a lonely rare bear.

He sits upon a square chair...

sunk in deep despair there.

I watched his lonely bear stare...

and cried, "We need a pair there!"